

Winifred Iverson, 89

Winifred M. Iverson, 89, Pierre died May 11, 1995 at her home. The service was held on May 15, 1995 at the Lutheran Memorial Church. Pastor Dave Zellmer officiated. Burial was in the Riverside Cemetery.

Winifred Mary Stone was born on July 17, 1905, to Earl and Frances (Smith) Stone, in Massema, Iowa. She graduated from Andover High School in 1922 and continued on to South Dakota State University. She graduated from S.D.S.U. in 1926 and also took many graduate hours.

Winifred married Howard Iverson on May 30, 1929, in Watertown, South Dakota. They moved to Groton, South Dakota and stayed there until 1957 when they moved to Pierre. She was a Home Economics teacher in the Groton and Pierre Public Schools for 29 years, retiring in 1970. She was a member of Lutheran Memorial Church, P.E.O., Delta Kappa Gamma, East Pierre Fed. Woman's Club, and the American Association of University Women.

Winifred is survived by her son John Iverson and his wife Janice of Rochester, Minn.; one sister Genevieve Pederson of Maple Plain, Minn., and two grandchildren, Mary Hansen and Jack Iverson, both of Chicago, Ill. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, one sister and one brother.